| 4. | | | | after consideration of | | | |
| | | | | Interior's strong assurance that field investigation | | | |
| 5. | | | | would be conducted when | | | |
| | | | | warranted. This decision was discussed with Mr. | | | |
| 6. | | | | was discussed with hit was | | | |
| | | | | not necessary and somewhat | | | |
| 7. | | | | impolitic to remind the Secretary of the Interior | | | |
| | | | | of a commitment and self- | | | |
| 8. | - | | | imposed standards. | | | |
| 3 . | | | | Further, he stated that Interior was most | | | |
| | - | | | cooperative and | | | |
| 9. | | | | conscientious in observing the requirement for | | | |

| 10. | | | | initiate action in a timely | | | |

| 12. | | | | honorable men, who on the basis of past performance, | | | |
| | | | , | take their responsibility | | | |
| 13. | | | | for protection of SCI seriously. The request for | | | |

I suggest you discuss the matter with Mr.

if you still have reservations. The crux of the issue is Interior's track record and he is in the best position to comment.
